ABSTRACT. The associahedron is a convex polytope whose vertices correspond to triangulations of a convex polygon. We define two signed or hyperoctahedral analogues of the associahedron, one of which is shown to be a simple convex polytope, and the other a regular CW-sphere.