ABSTRACT. Computable formulas involving only linking numbers and surgery coefficients are presented for computing how the Casson–Walker–Lescop invariant changes under band pass moves in a framed link presenting a 3-manifold. There is a discussion of the relevant equivalence classes and the potential for further formulas of this type.